

Third International Conference on Cultural Political Economy

Cultural Political Economy Centre, Lancaster University

List of Participants

Amin, Husnul (International Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan)

He is an Assistant Professor at International Islamic University Islamabad Pakistan. He works on development studies and political sociology.

Atzmueller, Roland (Johannes Kepler University, Linz, Austria)

He is an Assistant Professor in the Institute of Sociology at the Johannes Kepler University, Linz, Austria. He works on capitalism and social theories. Publication includes The Liberalisation of Services of Public Interest in the EU and in Austria: Effects on Employment, Working Conditions and Industrial Relations (2005).

Ayhan, Berkay (McMaster, Canada)

He is a PhD candidate in the Department of Political Science at McMaster University. His doctoral thesis is on Financial Literacy, Subjectivity and Political Economy: An Ethnography of Financial Literacy in Turkey.

de Azevedo, Mário Luiz Neves (Universidade Estadual de Maringá, Brazil)

(to be supplied)

Barkay, Tamar (The Academic College of Tel Aviv-Jaffa, Israel)

She is at the Department of Government and Society at the Academic College of Tel Aviv-Jaffa, Israel. She has research interests in sociology, qualitative analysis and public policy analysis.

Baskan, Burak (Sheffield, UK)

He has been awarded B.A. in Political Science and Public Administration from Middle East Technical University (METU) in 2009, B.S. in Economics from Anadolu University in 2010, and M.A. in Politics at the University of Sheffield in 2013. He is a PhD candidate in Politics at the University of Sheffield. His research areas are Hegemony, Discourse, Propaganda, Discourse Analysis, Cultural Studies, Political Communication, Orientalism, Islamophobia, Religion/Politics Relations, Islam.

Belfrage, Claes (Liverpool, UK) and Earl Gammon (Sussex, UK)

He is a Senior Lecture at the Liverpool Management School. His has research interests in International Political Economy and its variegated organisational forms. He published in Organizational Studies, Millennium, Capital and Class, Competition and Change, etc.

Cartier, Carolyn (University of Technology Sydney, Australia)

Carolyn Cartier (AB, MA, PhD University of California, Berkeley) is a professor of geography and China studies at the University of Technology Sydney. Her current research focuses on dynamics of the urban administrative divisions in China and topics in the politics of culture and urban development in China and Hong Kong. She is chief investigator of 'Governing the City in China: The Territorial Imperative', a collaborative research project funded by the Australian Research Council.

Caterina, Daniela (Hamburg, Germany)

Daniela Caterina earned her PhD in Political Science at the University of Hamburg in May 2017, where she has been teaching in B.A. courses since 2012. Building on a B.A. in Applied Languages (Università Cattolica of Milan) and a M.A. in European Studies (University of Hamburg), her research interests include (neo-)Gramscian theory, materialist state theory, discourse analysis and Italy's political economy.

Chamberlain, James (Sheffield, UK)

He is a PhD candidate in the Department of Politics at Sheffield University and a research affiliate in the Southern African Institute for Policy and Research (SAIPAR), Lusaka, Zambia. He has research interests in macroeconomic strategy, mining and agricultural policies.

Chihadeh, Christiane (Liverpool, UK)

She is a doctoral researcher in the Liverpool Management School at Liverpool University. Her research interests include institutional theory and British energy industry.

Cristaldo, Rômulo C. (Universidade Federal da Grande Dourados-MS, Brazil)
(to be supplied)

Dey, Shantanu (Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, India)

He is an Assistant Professor in the Business Ethics & Communication Group at the Indian Institute of Management Calcutta. He earned a Ph.D. (Inter-disciplinary) degree from the National Law School of India University Bangalore, India; a Master's degree in Communication from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, U.S.A.; and a Master's degree in Economics from the Delhi School of Economics, India. He has more than 15 years of industry experience having worked as Copy Editor, INDIA TODAY magazine; Executive Director, EXPRESS TELEVISION (Indian Express Group); Director-Programming, TV TODAY [India Today Group] & General Manager, TIMES TELEVISION (TOI Group). He has also written, produced and directed around 45 documentary films that have been screened in the UK, Germany, China, Egypt and South Africa. His publications have been in the area of convergent media law & policy, social movements and political communication. His current research interests include Freedom of Speech, Communication Law & Policy and Cultural Political Economy.

Doheny, Shane and Jones, Ian Rees (Cardiff, Wales)

He is a post-doctoral research associate in the School of Medicine at Cardiff University, Wales. His research interests are on healthcare practice and medical ethics.

Ellis, David (Liverpool, UK)

David Ellis is a Postdoctoral Research Associate in the School of Law and Social Justice at the University of Liverpool. His primary research interests focus on political economy, social policy, the welfare state, personal finance and the historic growth of personal indebtedness in the UK.

Erazo, Monica Patricia Cadenas (University Adina Simon Bolivar, Ecuador)
Challenging Governmentality
(to be supplied)

Ertürk, Ismail (Manchester, UK)

He is Senior Lecturer in Banking and Director for Social Responsibility and Engagement at Alliance Manchester Business School, The University of Manchester. His research interests are financialised capitalism, cultural political economy, , social value of finance and banking, and corporate governance. His recent publications are "Routledge Companion to Banking Regulation and Reform", Routledge 2017 (co-edited with Daniela Gabor) and, "Shadow banking: a story of the Doppelgänger (the Double) in science of finance", (2017) Journal of Cultural Economy.

Farrelly, Michael (Hull, UK)

He is a lecturer in Department of English at the University of Hull. He has research interests in critical discourse analysis, democracy and governance. His major book was Discourse and Democracy (2014) by Routledge.

Germond, Basil (Lancaster, UK)

He is a senior lecture at Lancaster University. An expert in naval and maritime affairs as well as ocean governance, he has published two monographs and in excess of 25 peer-reviewed articles and book chapters on these topics. His latest book tackles The Maritime Dimension of European Security (Palgrave Macmillan, 2015). He also co-edited the Routledge Handbook on Transatlantic Security (Routledge, 2010). Basil is a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society (FRGS).

Griebel, Tim (Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Numberg, Germany)

He is the Chair in Political Science in the Institute of Political Science at the Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Numberg, Germany. He has research interests in the Cultural Political Economy of Austerity in Germany and UK in the era of neoliberalism He major publication includes those in Politik.

Hafiz, Abdul (Lancaster and Blackburn, UK)

He is the academic subject leader – Community and Justice at University Centre, Blackburn College. He is also a PhD candidate (working with Bob Jessop) on precarity as resistance and cultural solidarity. He has published in Prism Journal.

Hall, Sarah Marie (Manchester)

She is a lecture in Human Geography in Manchester University. Her research interest is on geographical feminist political economy. She has published in Discover Society, Local Economy, etc.

Hall, Stephanie M. (Maryland, USA)

She is a PhD candidate in the Higher Education and International Education Department at the University of Maryland. She has research interests in international education policy.

Hanson, Steve (MMU and Salford)

He is a writer and researcher. He has lectured at Goldsmiths, in the Sociology department, at MMU and the University of Salford. He has written widely for publication, something which includes peer-reviewed academic journals, cultural and political journalism, essays and music writing. He has recently published in Cultural Studies, Visual Studies, Street Signs and Social Alternatives.

Hellman, Jacob (UC San Diego, USA)

He is a PhD candidate from the Department of Communication at University of California, San Diego.

Hesketh, Anthony (Lancaster, UK)

Anthony Hesketh is based in the Management School at Lancaster University. Ant has published books on the talent and the knowledge economy (2004), leadership (2010) and performance (2010). Since then he has been working in the field of accounting where he is contributing to and further developing the field of critical finance studies.

Hopma, Justa (Sheffield, UK)

She is a post-doctoral research fellow in the Global Food Justice programme investigating the role of civil society in food system change in Chile and Bolivia. She has published in Canadian Journal of Development Studies and Geography Compass.

Ingram, Nicola (Lancaster)

She is a senior lecturer in the Department of Education Research at Lancaster University. She has research interests in education, social justice and inequality. She has published in British Journal of Sociology of Education, Discover Society, British Educational Research Journal, etc.

Jessen, Mathias Hein (Copenhagen Business School, Denmark)

He is a post-doctoral researcher at the Department of Business and Politics, CBS, and part of the Civil Society in the Shadow of the State project. He has research interests in the history of political and economic thought as well as contemporary sociology and political theory and philosophy. He has published in the journal of Tidsskriftartikel.

Jessop, Bob (Lancaster, UK)

Bob Jessop is Distinguished Professor of Sociology and Co-Director of the Cultural Political Economy Research Centre in Lancaster University. His research interests are state theory, critical governance studies, critical political economy, critical realism and cultural political economy. In 2013, he completed a 3.5 year ESRC Professorial Fellowship on crisis and now holds a 40 percent research fellowship for 3 years on civil society as a mode of governance in Cardiff University. His most recent book is The State: Past, Present, Future (2015).

Jones, Ian Rees (Cardiff, UK)

He is the Director of Wales Institute of Social & Economic Research, Data & Methods (WISERD) and Professor of Sociological Research in Cardiff University. He has research interests in theoretical and empirical work on social change and processes of social change with special references to civil society, health, aging and later life. His major publications include Medical Sociology and Old Age: Towards a sociology of health in later life with P. Higgs (2009) (Routledge, London) and numerous articles in International Journal of Social Psychology, Sociology Compass, Aging and Society, etc.

Jones, Paul (Liverpool, UK)

He is a senior lecturer in the Department of Sociology, Social Policy and Criminology at Liverpool University. He has research interests in architecture and political economy. His major publication includes a sole-authored book on The Sociology of Architecture (2011) as well as articles in Architecture Theory Review, Urban Studies, Sociology, Rehabilitation and Disability, etc. His article in Sociological Research Online won the 2014 SAGE Prize for Innovation and/or Excellence.

Joseph, Jonathan (Sheffield, UK)

He is the Professor of Politics in the University of Sheffield. His research interest is in the intersection of philosophy, social theory and international relations. His current work examines this through the concepts of hegemony and governmentality. He is currently developing a critical approach to the idea of resilience and how it is used in international interventions, civil protection and security policies. Major publication include Hegemony: a Realist Analysis (2002) and Social in the Global (2012).

Karatepe, Ismail Doga (Kassel, Germany)

He has completed his PhD in Kassel University. He has research interests in political economy, state theory and Turkey. He has published in Research and Policy on Turkey.

Kertudo, Félicie (Royal College of Art, London)

She is a research student enrolled on Master in Research in Humanities in the Royal College of Art in London. She has research interests in museum and globalization.

Larsson, Oscar (Uppsala University, Sweden)

He is a senior lecture in the Department of Government at Uppsala University. He has research interests in disaster vulnerability, crisis management and metagovernance. He has published in Critical Discourse Studies, Foucault Studies, Critical Review, etc.

Lee, Doris (City University of Hong Kong)

Doris Lee is a PhD candidate in the Department of Asian and International Studies, City University of Hong Kong. She worked in Hong Kong as an investment banker, and later as an editor of an Asian labour rights NGO. Her areas of interest include: financialization, everyday and cultural political economy; cooperatives and social economy; and civil society organizations in Hong Kong. Her PhD thesis is on the financialization of everyday life in Hong Kong.

Maman, Daniel (Ben-Gurion University, Israel)

He is an associate professor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology of Ben-Gurion University, Israel. He has research interests in political economy, neoliberalism and central bank. His publication includes The Israeli Central Bank: Political Economy, Global Logics and Local Actors (2011) by Routledge.

Markusson, Nils (Lancaster, UK)

He is a lecturer in the Lancaster Environment Centre of Lancaster University. He has research interests in the politics of environmental technology and cultural political economy. He has published in Ecological Economics, Big Data and Society, Climate Change, etc.

Maronitis, Kostas (Leeds Trinity, UK)

Kostas Maronitis is Lecturer in politics at Leeds Trinity University, UK. He has published articles on the politics of fear, immigrant detention and human rights, cosmopolitanism and citizenship. He is the author of the book Postnationalism and the Challenges to European Integration in Greece: The Transformative Power of Immigration (Palgrave-MacMillan, 2016).

Mulderrig, Jane (Sheffield, UK)

She lectures in Applied Linguistics at Sheffield University, UK. Her research uses (corpus based) critical discourse analysis to investigate the use of 'soft power' in contemporary governance and politics. She also researches the cultural political economy of education and of ageing. For publications and other activities see:

<https://www.sheffield.ac.uk/english/people/mulderig>

Mulvad, Andreas Møller (Copenhagen Business School, Denmark)

He is an assistant professor in Department of Business and Politics of the Copenhagen Business School, Denmark. He has research interests in comparative political economy, historical sociology and China. He has published in New Political Economy and Capital & Class.

Muzaka, Valbona (King's College London, UK)

She is a senior lecturer in the Department of European and International Studies of King's College London. She has research interests in international political economy, knowledge economy, intellectual property rights and development. She has published in Review in International Political Economy, Review in International Studies, Third World Quarterly, etc.

Overweijk, Jan (Amsterdam, the Netherlands)

He is a PhD candidate in Social Philosophy at University of Amsterdam. His research interests include modernisation, critical theory and systems theory.

Paschek, Fanny (Greenwich, UK)

She is a PhD candidate and part-time lecturer in the Department of Systems Management and Strategy of the University of Greenwich. Her research interest is in innovation theories and cycling governance in London.

Paterson, Keith (Aberdeen, UK)

He is a PhD candidate in the Department of Sociology of Aberdeen University. He is also the co-founder of the Aberdeen Political Economy Group since 2014. His doctoral research project is on Towards a Cultural Political Economy of Household Debt in Low to Middle Income Households. This interdisciplinary project starts from the deployment of institutional ethnography (rooted in Dorothy Smith's Sociology of People) to the study of household experience of finance and debt as well as the practices of financial institutions, markets and state.

Paudyn, Bartholomew (LSE, UK)

He is a research associate of the Centre for Analysis of Risk and Regulations of the London School of Economics. His research interests include international political economy, financial crisis and sovereignty debt. He has published in Review of International Political Economy, Organizational Studies, Journal of Cultural Economy, etc.

Pencheva, Denny (Bristol, UK)

She is a PhD candidate and a teaching support assistant in the Department of Sociology, Politics and International Studies of Bristol University. Her research interests include EU migration and Brexit.

Rieder, Maria (Limerick, Ireland)

She is a post-doctoral researcher in sociolinguistics of (in)equality at the University of Limerick. Her research interests include critical examination of the role of language in situations of economic and social inequality. Her main current project is a major interdisciplinary and international study of the news coverage of Thomas Piketty's book 'Capital in the 21st Century' using Critical Discourse Analysis, Framing and Content Analysis.

Robles, Te-Anne (Warwick, UK)

She is a PhD candidate in the Department of Politics and International Studies. Her research interests include economic growth in East Asia and multilateral surveillance in the region.

Roncevic, Borut (School of Advanced Social Studies, Slovenia)

He is Professor of Sociology and holds Jean Monnet Chair in Cultural Political Economy of Europe 2020 at the Faculty of Information Studies (Novo mesto, Slovenia). His research includes Cultural Political Economy of EU grand strategies and of East European capitalisms and transformations.

Rosenhek, Zeev (Open University of Israel)

He is an Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology, Political Science and Communication at the Open University of Israel. His main research interests lie in the fields of political and economic sociology, with a particular focus on processes of institutional change and continuity in state-economy relations. He has conducted research on the political economy of the welfare state, labor migration, and the politics of institutionalization of the neoliberal regime in Israel. He is the co-author of The Israeli Central Bank: Political Economy, Global Logics and Local Actors (Routledge, 2011) with Daniel Maman, and has published numerous articles in books and journals. He is currently studying the emergence and dynamics of the institutional field of financial literacy and education in Israel and its interfaces with transnational knowledge and policy networks.

Sarasola, Mikel Díez (University of the Basque Country, Spain)

He is a PhD candidate in the University of the Basque Country. His research interests include intellectual property rights and law. He is also the First Deputy Chief of Staff, Head of the Deputy Lieutenant's Area Department of Culture, Tourism, Youth and Sport of the Basque Country.

Schmidt-Wellenburg, Christian (Potsdam, Germany)

He is an Assistant Professor of the Department of Sociology in Potsdam University. His research interests cover economic and managerial experts and expertise and discourse analysis. His recent publication includes Die Regierung des Unternehmens and Berliner Journal für Soziologie.

Schoppek, Dorothea (Technische Universität Darmstadt, Germany)

She is a research fellow in International Relations at the Technische Universität Darmstadt. She holds a master degree in Political Theory from Goethe Universität Frankfurt and in Human Rights from University College London. She has research interests in resistance movements, transformation studies, human rights and Cultural Political Economy.

Sefat, Osamu Bar-el (Sefat Consulting Ltd.)

(to be supplied)

Standring, Adam (FSCH-UNL, Lisbon, Portugal)

He is a doctoral candidate at the Faculty of Social and Human Sciences in the New University of Lisbon, Portugal (FCSH-UNL). He is also a researcher at the Portuguese Institute of International Relations (IPRI) and a member of the PSA's Anti-Politics Specialist Group. He has recently published in Policy and Politics.

Suesse, Nina (King's College London, UK)

Nina Suesse is a 3rd-year PhD-Student in the Department of European & International Studies at King's College London, where she previously completed her MA in International Political Economy. Her research focusses on German family policy, employing qualitative bottom-up analyses to discern the impact of reforms on the every-day experience of parents and childcare practitioners.

Sum, Ngai-Ling (Lancaster, UK)

She is a Reader in Cultural Political Economy in the PPR Department and Co-Director of the Cultural Political Economy Research Centre in Lancaster University. She has theoretical interests in developing cultural (international) political economy especially links between Marx, Gramsci and Foucault. She was awarded (with Bob Jessop) the Gunnar Myrdal Prize by the European Association of Evolutionary Political Economics for their co-authored book, Beyond the Regulation Approach (2006). In 2013, they co-authored a companion volume titled Towards a Cultural Political Economy.

Tyler, Imogen (Lancaster)

She is the Professor of Sociology in the Sociology Department of Lancaster University. Her research is concerned with social inequalities, power, injustice and resistance. Major publication includes Revolting Subjects: Social Abjection and Resistance in Neoliberal Britain (London: Zed, 2013) and articles in Race and Class, Citizenship Studies, Feminist Theory, etc.

Walsh, Clare (Bristol, UK)

She is an EdD candidate in the Graduate School of Education at University of Bristol where her research interests include cultural, political economy of education; civilisation analysis; higher education policy; and education quality evaluation and monitoring. She is currently based in the Arab Gulf where she lectures in a national institute of higher education having previously held lecturing positions in Ireland. In conjunction with lecturing she is also involved with the implementation of international quality assurance best practice.