

International Conference on Student-led Research and Innovation in Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences (ICRI-HASS'23)

1st – 2nd June 2023

PROGRAMME

THURSDAY 1 ST JUNE
Time		Session	STRAND: LANGUAGE AND LINGUISTICS	STRAND: CONTEMPORARY ARTS
MYT	BST
3.45pm	8.45am	Opening remarks by conference organisers
BLOCK 1 – PARALLEL SESSIONS
3.50pm	8.50am	Opening session by Facilitator	Theme: Multilingualism and society Facilitator: Dr Sebastian Muth	Theme: Hidden voices Facilitator: Dr Maryam Ghorbankarimi
4pm	9am	Student presentations for Block 1 overseen by Facilitator	Raghav Venkatesh University of the West of Scotland Beyond the Binary: Transcending the Native Speaker Construct in English Language Teaching	Mingkuo Li, Danyang Li Lancaster University, UK Shojo Vocalization: How JoJo’s Bizarre Adventure and Cheating Allowed modified the visual KITTEN metaphor in contemporary Japanese anime?
4.10pm	9.10am		Nur Afreena Mohammad Ishak National University of Malaysia Spoken Standard Malaysian English in Malaysian Secondary Schools: Unveiling the Views of Malaysian English Teachers	Kingsley Akam Lancaster University, UK Women Filmmakers and The Unheard Voices: The Typification of Afrocentric Colonialism in three Nollywood Films
4.20pm	9.20am		Victoria Hansly Swansea University, UK Threatening and Warning Speech Acts: A Contrastive Pragmatics Study of Dominican Spanish and American English	Rania Khelifa Chelihi English Language Studies, Malaysia Female Traditional Stereotypes; Patriarchy, Marriage in George Orwell’s Burmese Days
4.30pm	9.30am		Khaoula Daoudi University of Limerick, Ireland Can DDL be the outbreak of autonomous language learning: insights from English teachers	Zoe Crombie Lancaster University, UK Little Mermaids: The Transcultural Mythologies of Ponyo
4.40pm	9.40am		Sihui He South China Normal University Translating Culture, Bridging Communities: The Role of English in the Linguistic Landscape of Guangdong Museum	Rui Qian Lancaster University, UK The Hidden Voice: The Representation of Migrant Workers in Chinese Cinema
4.50pm	9.50am	BREAK
5pm	10am	Discussion session for Block 1	All student presenters from Block 1 Overseen by Dr Sebastian Muth	All student presenters from Block 1 Overseen by Dr Maryam Ghorbankarimi
5.30pm	10.30am	Closing remarks for the day by conference organisers

FRIDAY 2ND JUNE

Time		Session	STRAND: DIGITAL EDUCATION	STRAND: PSYCHOLOGY
MYT	BST
3.45pm	8.45am	Opening remarks by conference organisers
BLOCK 2 – PARALLEL SESSIONS
3.50pm	8.50am	Opening session by Facilitator	Theme: Transforming education through immersive learning Facilitator: Dr Nor Hafizah Adnan	Theme: Diversity and inclusivity in Psychology Facilitator: Dr Alia Azalea
4pm	9am	Student presentations for Block 2 overseen by Facilitator	Natalie-Jane Howard Lancaster University, UK Transformative or tedious? Digital micro-learning and lecturer professional identity and agency	Christine Howling Lancaster University, UK Need for Security: the driving force behind the “missing men’s” autonomy and relatedness seeking behaviours
4.10pm	9.10am		Ying Deng South China Normal University Exploring Novice Primary School EFL Teachers’ Perceptions about the Adoption and Integration of CALL	Michelle Ho Sunway University, Malaysia The Influence of Perceived Attractiveness on Perceived Trustworthiness and Perceived Intelligence Across 3 Age Groups
4.20pm	9.20am		Sangeeth Ramalingam National University of Malaysia Exploring Learners’ Qualitative Perspective on their Willingness to Communicate in ESL Communicative Blended Learning Classroom	Jingyu Wu Wenzhou-Kean University, China The Influence of Social Labelling on Human Communication
4.30pm	9.30am		Ke Wu Wenzhou-Kean University, China Futuristic Education: Utilizing ChatGPT as a Support Learning Tool	Bi Yuan National University of Malaysia From Knowing to Doing: A Meta-behavior Perspective in Education
4.40pm	9.40am		Nur Syafiqah Yacob National University of Malaysia Cultural Learning using Video Clips in English as a Second Language Lessons	Geok Har Yong Sunway University, Malaysia Parents’ and Teachers’ Reporting of Children’s Social-Emotional Development in East Malaysia
4.50pm	9.50am	BREAK
5pm	10am	Discussion session for Block 2	All student presenters from Block 2 Overseen by Dr Nor Hafizah Adnan	All student presenters from Block 2 Overseen by Dr Alia Azalea
5.30pm	10.30pm	Closing remarks by conference organisers		