

A woman with short dark hair, wearing a black dress and a name tag, stands on the left side of the frame. She is holding a piece of paper in her right hand and gesturing with her left hand. Behind her, several posters are pinned to the wall, including one titled '180 Teaching Space PC' and another with a grid of images. In the foreground, there is a long white table with red chairs. On the table, there are two glass pitchers and a small white cup. A laptop is open on the table near the woman. In the background, a large projection screen displays the text 'Hold still. Don't move.' and a quote from William Gibson's 'Neuromancer'.

Hold still. Don't move.

William Gibson 1984, Neuromancer, p. 31

