Eating in the evening

The Borough

Gastro-pub/restaurant with its own brewery on site. We recommend reserving as they can get very busy. Great for a drink as well as food.

3 Dalton Square LA1 1PP

Kashish

Good Indian food. Book if you are going on Friday or Saturday. They don't sell alcohol but they encourage you to bring your own (Sainsbury's is just across the road).

Drinking

The Tap House

A range of local ales and great atmosphere. They don't serve food.

2 Gage Street LA1 1UH

The Robert Gillow

Music pub (mostly jazz/folk) with a wide range of ales. Convenient for the station and great atmosphere.

64 Market Street LA1 1HP

The John O' Gaunt

Traditional pub, sometimes live music.
53 Market Street LA1 1JG

The Sun

Large traditional pub which also serves good food. Check out the well in the back room - it's worth seeing!
63 Church Street LA1 1ET

The Gregson Centre

Community centre with lovely atmosphere. Food is a range of British classics, pizzas and Mexican. Informal atmosphere and serves a range of local ales including vegan options.
33 Moorgate LA1 3PY

Cafes*Whaletail

Vegetarian/vegan cafe above a wholefoods shop. Excellent hearty food. Nice quiet garden to sit outside.
78a Penny Street LA1 1XN

The Hall

Possibly the strongest coffee in Lancaster. Modern urban decor and there's a piano in the loo (worth a visit). Great food.
10 China Street LA1 1EX

Gingernut

Nice place for a cafe lunch. Vegetarian options aren't as tasty as at Whaletail or Roots.
71 Penny Street LA1 1XF

Roots Vegetarian Cafe

Modern vegetarian food and good cakes.
5 George Street LA1 1XQ

The Music Room

Strong coffee and a beautiful building. Good cake.
Back Sun Street LA1 1EW

Williamson Park

Cafe in Williamson Park overlooking Morecambe Bay and the Lake District. The service isn't quick but the view is spectacular. Great coffee, OK food.
