

Your Global Exploration

EXPLORE THE WORLD | EXPAND YOUR ACADEMIC HORIZONS | ENRICH YOUR PERSONAL STORY

Travel to Boston & New York

27 March – 7 April

Your Global Exploration is an exciting opportunity for students of Linguistics and English Language to discover some of the ways that their subject relates to this ethnically and linguistically diverse nation.

By taking part in trip activities, you will witness first-hand how American institutions and people employ language to reflect and forge their identity or identities.

You will also have time to discuss what you are observing with your fellow classmates and with the lecturer who will be travelling with you on the trip.

Travel to Boston & New York

27 March – 7 April

Boston

You will travel first to Boston, which is considered by many to be one of the most historic cities in the US. Here you will see how Americans think and talk about the birth of their nation and how this is reflected in modern US life.

Activities in Boston include:

- Visit the JFK Presidential Library and explore and analyse the rhetoric of the Civil Rights Movement
- Tour the city on an introductory tour by the acclaimed Boston Duck Tour Company
- See the campuses of world famous Universities such as MIT and Harvard.

Travel to Boston & New York

27 March – 7 April

New York

In the second week the group will travel to New York City. In addition to the normal tourist highlights, you will:

- Tour the headquarters of the United Nations
- Visit the 9/11 Memorial and Museum
- Explore current work being done on language documentation and preservation by the Endangered Language Alliance
- Learn about forensic linguistics by a leading expert at New York University

Travel to Boston & New York

27 March – 7 April

Key Facts

To apply, enter your details in the online registration form (this will be emailed to you)

Financial assistance is available to cover the cost of the programme. You will be able to apply for this as part of the trip registration process.

The trip fee includes your flights, accommodation, scheduled activities and University travel insurance.

Want more information? Email lusu.overseas@lancaster.ac.uk

