

Programme: 23rd – 25th June 2026

Day 1: Tuesday 23rd June 2026

08:00	Registration opens (George Fox Foyer, tea and coffee available)
09:00	Conference Opening (George Fox Lecture Theatre 1 [LT1])
09:30	Plenary: Michaela Mahlberg Discourses and Transdisciplinarity (George Fox LT1)
10:30	Coffee Break (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 Nation and Nationhood Chair: Christopher Hart	George Fox LT2 Disability Discourses Chair: Emma Putland	George Fox LT3 Investigating words and keywords across contexts Chair: Mark McGlashan	George Fox LT4 Expert Discourses Chair: Mathew Gillings
11:00	‘As an American...’: A Corpus-Assisted Study of Nation-Related Self- and Other-Positioning in Reddit Crisis Discourse Mark Dang-Anh and Giorgia Riboni	Linguistic and Conceptual Change in Disability Discourse 1950–2023: A Distributional-Semantic Analysis Tim Feldmüller and Theresa Schweden	The role of “sociopolitical keywords” in discursive depoliticization: the case of the terms fascism and responsibility Erin Turneer	Explanatory processes in expert discourse: A view on Ask-an-Expert websites across disciplinary fields Daniel Pascual
11:30	Rebuild and Renew: Discourses of national health and nationhood under Starmer’s Labour Tamsin Parnell	Representation of blindness and blind individuals in the UK Press (2014–2023) Costas Gabrielatos, Themis Karaminis, Ursula Maden-Weinberger and Valeria Occelli	Evolving Discourses about “Influencers” on BlueSky Daria Dayter	“5 skin cancer-care tools you should look out for”: A pragmalinguistic analysis of clickbaiting practices in digital scientific dissemination Rosa Lorés

12:00	Figurative framings of Nation in British Conservative Party Parliamentary Discourse: an overview from 2015 to 2022 Dario Del Fante and Ilaria Iori	Intersecting and (In/Ex)cluding Minorities in News and Rights Movements: A corpus-assisted integrated framework for analysing representations of LGBTQIA+ and Disability Prides in the UK and Italy (2020–2025) Federico Zaupa	Fake News, Cancel Culture, and the limits of the sayable: Towards a theory and typology of discourse on discourse Isabelle Suremann	Engaging the public with health science: A corpus-based analysis of interactive strategies in spoken science popularization Valeria Franceschi and Sara Corrizzato
12:30	Lunch (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 Health Discourses Chair: Andrew Lustig	George Fox LT2 Parliamentary discourses Chair: Tamsin Parnell	George Fox LT3 Discourse across time Chair: Claudia Posch	George Fox LT4 Sociopolitical issues in the news Chair: Rakan Alibri
14:00	Objects of Feeling: A Comparative Study of 'Feel' in a Suicide and Anxiety Corpus Charlotte-Rose Kennedy and Corrie MacMillan	Naming the Unheard: Bridging Tools to Analyse Representations of Indigenous Language Practices in the Canadian Parliament (2019) Ann-Sophie Boily	“A new meme, ‘overtourism’ has been unleashed”: Corpus-assisted explorations of the use of overtourism in UK national newspapers Erik Castello and Dario Del Fante	How is National Debt Dramatized in Canadian Newspapers? Pier-Pascale Boulanger and Chantal Gagnon
14:30	Agency and involvement in the language of diabetes management. A corpus study of professional and lay discourses on type-1 and typ-2 diabetes Georg Marko	A Multivariate Analysis of Quotation in German Parliamentary Debates Nathan Dykes	There’s no business like show business. A corpus-assisted analysis of the construction of celebrities’ public self on Desert Island Discs Anna Marchi and Niall Curry	From European integration to contested values: a corpus-assisted discourse study of Europeanisation in the Croatian and Serbian broadsheet press (2007-2025) Piotr Mirocha
15:00	I feel like: Analyzing a key multi-word unit in an online anxiety support group context Corrie MacMillan and Alvin Cheng-Hsien Chen	Representations in Polish Parliamentary Debates on Abortion (1989-2024) Tomasz Detlaf	Everyday Language Change and the Discursive Conceptualisation of Creative Practice: A Diachronic Correlation Analysis Darryl Hocking	Explaining poverty: A discourse analysis of economic inequality in Swiss media discourse Isabelle Suremann, Dario d'Agostino, Julia Krasselt and Philipp Dreesen

15:30	A corpus-assisted multimodal discourse analysis of GLP-1 receptor agonist narratives on TikTok Nicola Pelizzari	Responsibility in times of instability: a cross-linguistic and cross-cultural analysis of parliamentary debates in Finland, Italy and the UK. Dario Del Fante and Jenni Räikkönen	New meanings of slow: a shift in time Jessica Jane Nocella	Discourses of democracy in the public domain: A comparative study of US and German news Marc Kupietz, Tim Feldmüller, Tony Berber Sardinha and Maria Claudia Nunes Delfino
16:00	Coffee Break (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 Research discourses Chair: Rosa Lorés	George Fox LT2 Discourse and ‘place’ Chair: Dario Del Fante	George Fox LT3 Sexual and/or gender-based violence Chair: Amanda Potts	George Fox LT4 Triangulating corpus and discourse research Chair: Shannon Fitzsimmons-Doolan
16:30	Investigating academics’ discourses of writing: A Corpus-Assisted study of disciplinary expectations Analisa Scerri	The discourse of the online place brand image of Hong Kong in an online travel forum Phoenix Lam	Disbelief, dismissal, denial, diversion: Using CADS to identify quantitative and qualitative absences in discourses relating to sexual violence Rachelle Vessey	Disputed Museum Labels Through the Lens of CADS: Triangulating Corpus and Reception Analysis Xiaoyu Xu and Cecilia Lazzeretti
17:00	An investigation of catastrophic in climate-themed public-oriented research communication Niall Curry, David Wright and Lorenzo Zannini	Place as discourse: Employing Corpus-Assisted Discourse Studies (CADS) to study spatiality in texts E. Dimitris Kitis	Taboo and Critical Discourse Analysis: A Linguistic Taxonomy of Transparency on Femicide Sophie Eyssette	The Discourse of Authenticity: Constructing Commodity Value in Shanghai’s High-end Sustainable Fashion Qin Fan
17:30	The Use of Clinical Trial Studies to Support and Oppose Conspiracies during Pandemic Uncertainty: A Corpus Assisted Discourse Study of Reddit Chris Sanderson, Elena Semino, Fiona Burns and Shema Tariq	The “Southern Question” in Il Forum dei Brutti in Italy: a CADS-DHA investigation. Selenia Anastasi and Federica Formato	Image-based sexual abuse in digital discourse: a critical analysis of YouTube commenters’ discursive constructions of victim-survivors and perpetrators Marta Sánchez-Cócera	From corpus to experiment and back again: What method and data triangulation can tell us about language and gender bias Sylvia Jaworska
18:00 - 20:00	Wine reception and posters (George Fox Foyer)

Day 2: Wednesday 24th June 2026

08:30	Registration (George Fox Foyer, tea and coffee available)
09:00	Plenary: Matteo Fuoli A new methodological synergy? Mixing CADS and experiments to investigate audience effects (George Fox LT1)
10:00	Coffee Break (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 (Social) media, gender and online identities Chair: Daria Dayter	George Fox LT2 Discourse in fiction Chair: Sylvia Jaworska	George Fox LT3 Pregnancy, parenthood and childlessness Chair: Nicola Pelizzari	George Fox LT4 Migration discourses Chair: Anna Marchi
10:30	Moral panic over effeminacy: the representations of niangpao in Chinese newspapers Run Li	The human-water relationship in 19th century fiction Andreas Wagner and Michaela Mahlberg	‘Woman’ vs. ‘womb’: The construction of pregnant people in 50 years of amicus briefs from landmark abortion cases Amanda Potts and Jamie Abrams	Discourses of immigration in human-authored and AI-generated news Marilisa Shimazumi and Tony Berber Sardinha
11:00	Mainstreaming Misandry: examining the rise and spread of anti-feminist language in news media Mark McGlashan, Jessica Aiston, Veronika Koller and Alexandra Krendel	Representations of Ill Health in best-selling Young Adult fiction Maria Leedham, Sarah Jane Mukherjee and Sally Hunt	A linguistic exploration of SHAME and GUILT in English and Japanese parenting websites Eugenia Diegoli	Investigating Multimodal Meaning-Making in TV News Discourse about Immigration using the NewsScape Corpus Christopher Hart
11:30	The Grammar of Victimization Narratives in Incel Discourse: A Cognitive-Corpus Analysis [recorded presentation] Antonio-Jesús Tinedo-Rodríguez	Body, movement and sensation in fanfiction on Jane Austen Nathan Dykes, Anastasia Glawion and Michaela Mahlberg	“AITA for not wanting to teach my child my mother tongue?” - A corpus-assisted critical discourse analysis of multilingual parenting discussions on Reddit Ursula Kania, Sofia Lampropoulou, Annarita Magliacane and Paige Johnson	Analysing stance in parliamentary briefings through semantic frames Xinmei Sun
12:00	From Recipes to Radicalization: A Corpus-linguistic Perspective on the Rhetoric of Far-right and Tradwife Influencers Claudia Posch	The mistress, the sub, his hotwife and her lover: stock characters in erotic fiction Alon Lischinsky and Kat Gupta	Multimodal Discourses of Voluntary Childlessness on Chinese Social Media: A Critical Study Tianxin Li	Fear and pride: Emotion talk in UK migration debates Charlotte Taylor

12:30	Lunch (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 Methodological innovations Chair: Nathan Dykes	George Fox LT2 Power and legitimation Chair: Stefania Maci	George Fox LT3 Corporate discourses Chair: Matteo Fuoli	George Fox LT4 Gender and sexuality Chair: Rachelle Vessey
14:00	Interdisciplinary applied corpus linguistics: A case study of a promising partnership Shannon Fitzsimmons-Doolan and Jennifer Beseres Pollack	Unveiling structured antagonisms in leadership discourse: a corpus-assisted approach Mathew Gillings, Gerlinde Mautner, Mark Learmonth and Andrea Whittle	Tech CEO Discourse on YouTube over a Decade: A Corpus-Based Discourse Analysis Rakan Alibri	Taking a stand on issues of gender and sexuality in Hong Kong: a corpus-driven analysis of letters to the editor Benedict J.L. Rowlett
14:30	How to kill your darlings: decision making (and decision breaking) in a participatory corpus study about teachers Kathryn Spicksley	Prudence and Power: Discursive Hierarchies in the Bank of Canada's Public Speeches Chantal Gagnon	Corporate censorship online: Vagueness and discursive imprecision in YouTube's advertiser-friendly content guidelines Susanne Kopf	Gendered family narratives in a Japanese newspaper: A comparison of reader letters by women and men (1995–2024) Keisuke Yoshimoto
15:00	LLMs as Metadiscourse Annotators: A Three-Dimensional Framework for Context-Mediated Identification and Classification Javad Haditaghi, Silvia Cavalieri and Marina Bondi	A Study on Energy Policy Discourse in the International Energy Agency Mengxuan Bai	“No hidden costs or sneaky fees”. Exploring the digital communication of financial institutions and payday lenders Ursula Lutzky	Laughed, cried, shouted: gender and emotional vocalisation in young adult fiction Sally Hunt, Maria Leedham and Sarah Jane Mukherjee
15:30		Constructing Legitimate Violence: A Corpus-Assisted Analysis of Verbs in Russian War Telegram Blogs Olga Bikkulova	Insurance Contracting Discourses: Framing and Transparency Katherine A. Ireland, Tim R. Samples and David Eckles
16:00	Coffee Break (George Fox Foyer)
16:30	Plenary: Elena Semino Using corpus-based discourse analysis to cross boundaries and build bridges (George Fox LT1)
19:00	Conference dinner (Lancaster House Hotel)

Day 3: Thursday 25th June 2026

08:30	Registration (George Fox Foyer, tea and coffee available)
09:00	Plenary: Brian King Corpora and online discourse: The first vicennium (George Fox LT1)
10:00	Coffee Break (George Fox Foyer)
	George Fox LT1 Pandemic discourses Chair: Anna Marchi	George Fox LT2 Online discursive ecosystems Chair: Sophie Eyssette	George Fox LT3 Food discourses Chair: Ursula Lutzky
10:30	Right-wing pandemic crisis discourse: A case study of Bolsonaro's live broadcasts Mirella Whiteman, Aline Zamboni, Arianne Brogini and Marcos Oliveira	The Politicization of Climate Change: A Corpus-Assisted Ecolinguistic Analysis of Reddit Mariasophia Falcone	'The takeaways doctors want to cancel', 'miracle foods', and 'culinary exotica' for the 'fearless eater' - Representations of Chinese foodways in the UK press 'post-COVID' Ursula Kania and Lorna Ryan
11:00	Discourses in human and LLM-produced oral histories of the pandemic Tony Berber Sardinha et al.	Plural Identities and the Hermeneutics of Suspicion: A Corpus Assisted Discourse Analysis Andrew Lustig, Oliver Harrison, Mark McGlashan, Gavin Brookes, Sophie Simic-Lustig and Benoit Mulsant	Framing Chinese food in Western news media: A case study on Italian and American newspapers Ilaria Iori
11:30	Analyzing Xenophobic Discourses targeting China on X during the COVID-19 pandemic Cícero Soares da Silva	Constructing regenerative travel: A corpus-driven, functionally motivated multimodal discourse analysis of Instagram hashtagging practices and eco-sensitive narratives Elena Mattei	"Il Mipaaft arriva su Instagram!" From food sovereignty to social media: An analysis of digital gastronationalism Stefania M. Maci
12:00	Lunch (George Fox Foyer)

	George Fox LT1 Language learning and cross-language comparisons Chair: Niall Curry	George Fox LT2 Sustainability discourses in (social) media Chair: Ursula Kania	George Fox LT3 Legal discourses Chair: Yufeng Liu
13:00	What happens when a feature simply is not there? A short study of a gender-neutral pronoun in translation. Irene Elmerot, Tora Hedin and Jonáš Thál	The deconstruction of the climate crisis on anti-science websites Isabelle Clarke and Beth Cook	Coercive Control in the Courtroom: A corpus-based Critical Discourse Analysis on the representation of domestic abuse in Depp v. Heard Charlie Brookes
13:30	Filmic discourse: From corpus analysis to the English as a Foreign Language classroom Paula Wood Borque and Pilar Mur Dueñas	Conveying the crisis: A corpus-assisted analysis of how left- and right-leaning UK newspapers frame the green energy transition Yingnian Tao and Mark Ryan	Mapping Trust in the Courtroom: A Corpus-Assisted Discourse Study of Jury Deliberations Rebecca Jenkins and Nuria Lorenzo-Dus
14:00	Framing "limitations" as "bad news": A corpus-based comparative study of English and Spanish social science research articles Ana I. Moreno	The Evolution of Ecolanguage in Fashion Media Communication: A Corpus-Based Discourse Analysis Agnese Ughetti	Historical Representations of Gay Male Identity in Contemporary Australian Legislation: A Corpus-Assisted Approach Emma Genovese
14:30	Poster [recorded video, separate to panel]: Tourism Chinese in Macau's Entertainment and Sports Industries Shan Wang	Detecting Discourses Around Sustainability in Social Media: A Lexical Multidimensional Analysis Arianne Brogini	Measuring Division: The Language of Dissent in the Supreme Court and American Polarization Rohan Srivatsa, Katherine Ireland, Sophia Nguyen, Jason Eappen and Meryem Acioz
15:00	Conference closing (George Fox LT1)		